Meeting Minutes - October 2008

October Business Meeting, 6 October 2008

Old Business

Baronial Birthday: NTR.

Midwinter's: Still on for 17 January. The 'Guild heads' have been contacted, and all is progressing apace for activities. Santiago has put up a skeleton Event Webpage; I hope to have it fleshed out soon.

On Target 2009: NTR. (Scheduled currently for 30 May.)

NOTT 2009: NTR. (Last weekend of April.)

New Business

Bardic Circle: 2.5 months out. Tentatively to be held at Master Corun's? Discussion on the Yahoo! Group to continue as to the exact date and location.

November 7-10 is Aethelmark's Cooks & Bardic Symposium. It is being held at Slippery Rock (PA); its website is up for more info. A carpool is being organized from the Barony, and hotel suites are being worked.

Robert Runewald was at the library this morning to set up the Business Meeting reservations. They will be set up for 1st Monday of every month except December 2008 (Pearl Harbor Day), and July and August 2009 (for the library's reading program, and to follow Pennsic, respectively).

B&B: Thanks very much for Investiture, a wonderful time was had by all (despite the rain). A lot of people were awarded some cool stuff. As far as our progress is concerned, Her Exc. Is going to Storvik, also Bright Hills (Treaties, not Turks); also Dun Carraig's War of the Roses in November. The Baronial Progress is now up on the website. A scrapbook of this reign is being built, pictures are welcome.

Exchequer: 3rd qtr report is done. Likewise the Event Report for Baronial Birthday '08. Depending on how you do the calculation, we're either $38.56 down, or $748.76 up. Balance sheets have been sent to Chronicler. $10026.30 in the accounts.

Chatelaine: NTR.

Herald: NTR.

Webminister: 21 new pages on website, most interesting being the Baronial Order of Precedence and the Barons/Baronesses of Lochmere, Court Report pages for a couple of old events, fliers from past events, etc. See the 'Website Updates' page. Recipes from the Baronial Birthday will find their way to the webpage soon, also.

Chronicler: NTR.

Youth Minister: There was 1 entry into the youth competition at the Baronial Birthday (Origami).

A&S: Event report is in. Another banner painting session on 2 November. Also brewing, on the 12th and again after the Halloween Festivities on the 31st (a Midnight Brew Session) at Misha's. A&S Night to be the 20th at Misha & CC's.

Heavy Marshal: NTR.

New Business (Continued)

Rapier: Practices are in a Howard County Public School; when school is closed, practice is closed. This will include Election Day and a day in Dec. Announcements will be made.

Archery: Still going on at Aeddan's house.

Music: NTR.

Seneschal: Sign-ups for the Business Meeting for the next year are done. Ask Robert or Padre for the dates. We missed the 1st Monday only in August (Pennsic) and December (Pearl Harbor Day).

A NOTE FROM YOUR CHRONICLER:

As you may have noticed, there's a bit more art in this month's Dredgings. This is because (insert trumpet-blare here) the historical Chronicler's Files have been found! This trove includes much past artwork, many past articles, and even (gasp!) several ancient copies of the Baronial Newsletter, some of which date back to the days of Myrkwood, when the Dredgings were known as the Taproot.

In hopes of increasing the interest in both the History of our great Barony and in the Dredgings themselves, I intend to copy several of the articles (and some of the artwork) in as many forthcoming issues of the Dredgings as I can stretch them out.

That being said, let us not forget that the Dredgings is your newsletter. If you have written an article on something period, or on some aspect of your research, please send it to me, that it may reach a broader audience in the Dredgings. If you have photographs from an event that you would share, please send them to me! (They need not be of one of our events, but hopefully will include at least a few Lochmeri...) If you are a budding artist, and wish to see your work 'in print,' please let me know!

I know that I will not be disappointed in the works to spring from the minds, hands, pens, and keyboards, of our beloved Barony.

I remain In Service,

--Mikhail Novgorodets,
Chronicler, Barony of Lochmere
