

The Barony of Lochmere
Presents
A Fayre Night on the Town XI
8-10 April 2011

It is the year 1590, and the people of Smeewick are celebrating the return of Spring and the peaceful season ahead. War has abated, merchants and players have returned to town. In an effort to keep the peace, Smeewick's Lord Mayor has organized a display of arms to coincide with the town's Spring Fayre. All in the surrounding lands are invited to participate in the day's entertainments!

Martial Activities

Lord Arghylle Buchanan (John Harper) has a series of melees and individual bouts for both rapier and schlager planned. Questions should be addressed to him as the Marshal-in-Charge at Arghylle@yahoo.com.

Baroness Dealla Cohen will be running a thrown weapons target area and a limited archery shoot will be available. To obtain further information, contact her Excellency at DeallaC@juno.com.

Arts & Sciences Activities

Displays, competitions and classes are planned for the populace's enjoyment. Details will be available over time on this site or by contacting Lady Lisette la Rouxe at moas@lochmere.atlantia.sca.org.

Entertainment

Strolling players and minstrels will provide further entertainment alongside festival games of strength, accuracy, and stamina.

Merchants are welcome! Please contact the reservationist, Duchess Marie-Simone de Barjavel 'la Fildena at barjavel@verizon.net to reserve field space.

Alongside the merchants will be our annual Lochmart. This is a wonderful opportunity to sell or acquire gently used SCAdian items. Please contact Mistress Margery Winterbourne (Sharon Horstman) at SKHorstman@gmail.com.
