Baronial Missive to the Populace

Greetings unto the wonderful populace of Lochmere,

We hope you are all in fine spirits as these words reach you.

We have recovered well from war and would like to take this time to offer our thanks for all who came to Pennsic and supported Lochmere and Atlantia. Thank you to Master Reynard for once again organizing the Baronial camp; Lochmere was well prepared to help defend and support Atlantia. Thanks to all the came up for land grab for set up, made the camp beautiful during peace week, helped with maintenance, and the take down of camp which was smooth and speedy. Also a big thank you to Baron Kryss for driving the truck again this year.

We are happy to report that the brave fighters and archers of Lochmere assisted the Atlantian army very well. We were also very proud of our champions, Lord Cormacc and Lady Ayla for not only fighting well during the Baronial champions tourney but also by demonstrating excellent courtesy and kindness to their fellow combatants. We were very proud of Lochmere's accomplishments on the field of battle.

As you may recall, Lochmere helped sponsor the bouncy castle at the Children's Fete. As expected, this was a big hit with the kids. Lochmere also excelled in Service and Arts and Sciences: Lochmeri could be found retaining, water bearing, sitting at troll, assisting with vigil village, working at the thrown weapons range, participating in Pennsic singing groups and plays, and teaching classes. You are all amazing!

Next weekend we will be visiting our neighbors in Bright Hills for Trial by Fire which will include the Lochmere Arrow shoot. We hope to see many of you there.

Then we will turn our attention to Battle on the Bay which is just around the corner. The autocrats have been working hard to make this a wonderful event. For the martially minded, there will be heavy fighting, rapier, archery, and thrown weapons. For an extra challenge, there will be the Samkeppni Ernir a multi-faceted challenge to test "the most puissant of warriors; skilled archers; and astute thinkers." Additionally there will also be A&S competitions, open display, silent auction, dancing, and merchants. We will be kept busy, but will make time to sample the mead on display.

Please offer what assistance you can to the autocrats, Lady Genevieve (k_kalbaughATyahooDOTcom or Lord Cormacc at cormaccAToutlookDOT.com. Mistress Medb is still accepting preregisters, so if you haven't yet, please send her your reservation; her address in on the event website: <http://lochmere.atlantia.sca.org/battle-on-the-bay-2015>

Looking forward to seeing all of you at Battle of the Bay, and then at the Baronial business meeting on Monday September 14th.

Baron Gabrell Baroness Avice

Over the next several issues of the Dredgings, a few pages will be added from the book. When all the pages have been published, a complete pdf will be available with all the pages of the book on the Lochmere Yahoo Groups page. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Battle on the Bay

Missive from the Marshal in Charge - Sir Aelfred of Cres

Battle of the Bay 2015: Samkeppni Ernir (Competition of Eagles)

Battle of the Bay for 2015: Samkppni Ernir, is composed of six combined competitions designed to challenge the most puissant of warriors; skilled archers; and astute thinkers. This year's event consists of a tournament of six parts, with the winner being the contestant who fares the best over all.

Two parts are designed to challenge the mind; a series of heraldry and chess puzzles to be pondered over and submitted for consideration by the panel of judges. (You may only bring your innate knowledge to this challenge.) Two competitions to challenge the hand/eye coordination of our archers; one in target archery, the other in combat archery. Finally, two parts to challenge the warrior (heavy and rapier); a warlord tourney where honor and renown will be earned by the victorious captain.

Points will be awarded for successfully competing in each of the six parts and summed up at the end of the day. A winner will be announced for each of the six parts as well as the overall champion.

Specifics

Heraldry will consist of a series of devices, in increasing degree of difficulty and value. The contestant, using nothing more than his own knowledge of heraldry is to blazon them to the best of his ability. The panel of heralds will judge the correctness of each submission and award points accordingly.

Chess will consist of a series of puzzles that will have only one solution. Again the degree of difficulty and value will increase. The maximum number of points will be earned by the contestant who correctly solves the most puzzles.

Archery is being organized by Lord Cameron de Grey and information will be forwarded as soon as it is available.

Heavy and Rapier warlord tourney is the standard format.
