Waste Not: The Art of Medieval Recycling
Saturday, June 25, 2016—Sunday, September 18, 2016
10:00 AM—05:00 PM
The Walters Art Museum

Medieval artists were skilled at making use of older materials. On view in this exhibition are more than 20 objects from the Walters' collection in gold, ivory, stone, glass, and parchment that show evidence of reuse, such as melting down Roman mosaic glass to include in Romanesque enamels. Stunning and important in their own right, these works reveal secrets recently discovered through exciting new research by our curators and conservators.

A Feast for the Senses: Art and Experience in Medieval Europe
Sunday, October 16, 2016—Sunday, January 08, 2017
10:00 AM—05:00 PM
The Walters Art Museum

The art of medieval Europe - luminous stained glass windows, church bells with their mesmerizing sounds, and tapestries depicting fragrant gardens - stirred the senses. This international loan exhibition brings together more than 100 paintings, tapestries, metalwork, manuscripts, and prints from museums in the United States and abroad, including masterpieces from the Walters' collection.

Chronicler's Challenge

Thank you for taking the time to read The Dredgings!

This month's challenge...From what Kingdom was Atlantia created and on what date?

Email your answer and I will print them in the next issue. (sarradevicenza@outlook.com)

From last month: What is your favorite "Pennsic Moment?"

Answer: I didn't get any responses for this...so mine was during the Bridge Battle this year at Pennsic. As a Combat Archer, it was awesome and lots of fun.

Good luck and keep reading....I will have more Baronial, Kingdom, and SCA trivia in 2016!

~ Lady Sarra de Vicenza
