Next meeting January 9 in Odenton

Calling all Lochmere Mixologists,

I have a confession to make. I am suffering from a bit of envy. At War of the Wings this year, our fine cousins in Bright Hills shared a beverage named “The Bright Hills Sling”. Yes, they have their own Baronial cocktail. It was quite tasty, and I must admit to now desiring a Baronial cocktail of our own.

Therefore at our April Event, Night on (under) the Tartan, April 14-16, I will be sponsoring a competition for the Baronial Cocktail. The winning beverage will then be featured at Pennsic and Battle on the Bay, and the winner will receive a prize (TBD).

Parameters:

- 1) Taste – first and foremost.
- 2) The beverage must contain at least one main period ingredient. The more authentic, the better, but do not sacrifice taste for accuracy.
- 3) Bonus – catchy Lochmere themed name.

I hope many of you have fun trying out new recipes this winter.

YIS,

Avice

Upcoming A & S Competition

---

As your A&S Champion, I will be sponsoring a Spanish Work (Blackwork) competition at our January event: Torquemada's Trans-Iberian Winter Tour.

Items entered can be clothing, accessories, samplers, ect. Anything with this type of period embroidery is acceptable as an entry. Some form of documentation is required though it does not have to be complicated. Beginners are welcome to enter. I am announcing now to give everyone a head start. The winner will receive an embroidery related prize. Best of luck!

Gwen

Chronicler Position Open

---

Lochmere

I will be stepping down in March, as my warrant will be expiring. There are a great deal of benefits, first since you do not have any responsibilities at events, it leaves you free to participate in other activities. The position most likely will be changing and going more "on-line" and you can help shape what those responsibilities will be. You also have a reserved seat at business meetings :)

If you are interested in becoming a deputy and eventually becoming Chronicler, please let me know.

~ Lady Sarra de Vicenza
