Lochmere Mixologists

Calling all Lochmere Mixologists,

I have a confession to make. I am suffering from a bit of envy. At War of the Wings this year, our fine cousins in Bright Hills shared a beverage named "The Bright Hills Sling". Yes, they have their own Baronial cocktail. It was quite tasty, and I must admit to now desiring a Baronial cocktail of our own.

Therefore at our April Event, Night on (under) the Tartan, April 14-16, I will be sponsoring a competition for the Baronial Cocktail.

The winning beverage will then be featured at Pensic and Battle on the Bay, and the winner will receive a prize (TBD).

Parameters:

- 1) Taste – first and foremost.
- 2) The beverage must contain at least one main period ingredient. The more authentic, the better, but do not sacrifice taste for accuracy.
- 3) Bonus – catchy Lochmere themed name.

I hope many of you have fun trying out new recipes this winter.

YIS,

Avice

Lochmere Business Meeting Notes

Next Meeting April 3, 2107

Baron: Been to several events, all is going well— proud of everyone and what they are doing. Spoke to church about fighter practice after June, it has indoor area for practice. It's on New Cut Road, Chris Maddox Christian Church.

Baroness: Stakes were bought for 14X14 (dayshade) but were never received them after Pensic. Also need eight ropes for it. A bag will be made to place everything into once all the parts are located. Tatiana is making bigger banner replacements. Cost of the materials need to be approved. Old banners will be retired with honors. NOTT: Serving as Royal Liaison and everything that needs to be covered is taken care of. Need to do loner armor inventory. Coronation: Serving as Generosity an Agent of Charity so please consider going and volunteering as a Virtue of Charity. As they do need help at the event itself. Scribal this Sunday, March 12th at Baroness' house and please RSVP if coming with a PM via Facebook. Don't forget to get in award recommendations in for NOTT. Loner Armor needs to be inventoried. Gwen is looking into website—we are unable to update anything to it.

Seneschal: Officers are to give their warrant status with reports, other than that not much to report at this moment—all is going smoothly. The Regional Seneschal will be handling the polling. All officers that volunteered were approved for office.

Exchequer: Warrant expires: Warrant needs to be signed and submitted to Kingdom for new exchequer Current Ledger $15484.12. Checks mailed out that were due to Kingdom and Bright Hills. New fighter practice location delayed till June. Will send out request for liability insurance document to include new location. End of Year was sent in a week late but was in coordination with kingdom exchequer and regional exchequer to resolve how numbers were allocated. After warrant is approved is when we should coordinate new bank signatories. Received Battle on the Bay split in mail. Called and asked Midwinter site to mail our statement and copy of signed contract. No response right now. Need Budget for On Target. We have bills for two or three fighter practices I do not believe we attend, need to find out for sure, the Baroness said to check on Facebook to double check.

Minister of Arts and Sciences: Warrant expires: March 6, 2019

Sunday, February 19, 2017 was a joint newcomer/A&S workday held with Baroness Greer teaching basic tunic making and sewing held at Lady Anne d'Evreux' house. The next A&S/Newcomers day will be held at Connie's house scheduled March 26, 2017 at 11:00 am and scheduled rolled hems and two color Lucet cord.

Chatelain: Warrant expires: Maybe November 2018, never got back confirmation.

The workshop on February 19, 2017 was attended by six people, one person is new to the SCA and another came with the intention of become more active within the SCA.

Equestrian will hold a Calvary workshop March 19, 2017. 10:00 am at Lady Anne d'Evreux' house. There will be a building and pony workshop in April, just confirmed insurance today (March 6, 2017).

Herold: Warrant expires: November 30, 2019

No changes to report since the last meeting. New items for the Barony are still under review at the Society level. I've done a little more work on the two other items, but have not submitted them yet. One item from the Torquemada court report needs fixing in the OP, so I'll need to send in a correction for that. Otherwise, all is well.

Minister of the Lists: Warrant expires: not sure, maybe started in past couple of months, 2019 sometime.

At Ymir I sat at the MOL (rapier) table with His Excellency for the day and was a great time. Not much else to report.

Knight Marshal: Warrant expires: Not present, nothing to report.

Archery Marshal: Warrant expires: December 3, 2019

Start back up March 16, 2017 with the time change. A bow inventory was done over the weekend and made sure they were ready to be used. Ok for the beginning of the season as far as arrows go but we will need to make some more. Target repair is needed before start up. Last years targets need to be demolished and put back together, will be done this week. Possible arrow workshop in the future. Announcement will be made about opening of season.

Web Minister: Warrant expires: has already expired and no replacement.

We are going to look into outsourcing our website. Other groups have been doing this already. It would be more efficient to have it outsourced. Baron is doing the research and will bring to group when he has everything. The webpage is out of date and we are out of compliance because we are unable to upload the latest newsletter. It needs to be fixed immediately. Gwen is going to take a look and try to get us back into compliance for now.

Minister of Youth: Warrant expires:

Children's activities as ready for NOTT and ready to be posted. She was asked at YMIR to run the children's activities at Coronation and the outgoing Her Majesty will be helping out.

Event information for the upcoming Night on the Tartan youth activities has been written and sent. I have been asked to run children's activities for Coronation. That is my report.

Upcoming Events:

Night of the Tartan: Things are progressing well; Barrett has received contract, check and insurance. We will have the liquor license at the meeting, it requires 3 signatures and notarized. We still need someone to help coordinate a bardic circle. We have a Clash of the Clans Melee Tournament scheduled—the tournament of record is a Scottish broadsword tourney thing for points. A battle with archery as well. A volunteer sheet will be passed out at the meeting. We are creating letters from Bruce, expect to see one out on FB and Merry Rose this week (A&S focused). Bruce does need to be modified so he has some pants on! We are updating the Calendar and FB page with PayPal and Martial details as soon as the final details are received by the MIC, however PayPal is up and was communicated on Merry Rose and FB. Let's get those pre registrations in! Please help by spreading the word of the event by cross sharing it.

On Target: It is on the calendar but no official contact yet. We had talked previously about buying poison ivy spray to use a month ahead of the event and then again two weeks before. Make sure it is added to the budget. Need to get owners permission first—have volunteers to help spray. Katla made mead with the tangerines left over from lunch last year and will donate it for gifts and or prizes for the event.

Pensic: No confirmation on thrown weapons yet but will check back this week. $150 is still good from the Barony. The group is registered. Reynard would like the populace to concentrate on making their own camp sites look good. Nothing is needed from the populace as of right now, will know closer we get to event.

Battle on the Bay: Having issues getting a hold of a copy of contract from Storvik. Make sure we have the dates correct for the event and if we can have liquor at the event.

Mid Winter: Any volunteers to autocrat? Needs to be posted to the lists.

External Events:

Harvest Wars: October 14, 2017—Bright Hills. Get Pumpkin Chunkin' materials ready and sheep!

SAD: is on and MAD is off. Thrown weapons event in Booneville, NC—same site as WOW—Baron Kryss Kostarev is in charge - coming together really, really well. Planning a night time battle using glow sticks.

Old Business: Nothing to report
