Baronial Drunken Court at Pensic

Announcing Our New Baron and Baroness

First, Her Majesty and I would like to thank their Excellencies for leading Lochmere to Pennsic in support of the Atlantian war effort. In every area of endeavor seen at Pennsic, Our Barony of Lochmere was proudly represented. We did find some time to interview some of the candidates willing to succeed Their Excellencies Gabrell Fairclough and Avice Claremond, and to discuss the pollings with Their Excellencies. Upon our return from Pennsic, we completed the last of our interviews and consulted once more with Gabrell and Avice. Today, Signy and I came to our decision. It was difficult, given the skills, talents and history of contributions to the Barony and Kingdom represented by all five couples. Thank you Cassair Warwick and Griffin Warwick, Christian Darmody and Lisette la Roux, Phillip of Ghent and Genvieve Dampier de la Marche, Kris Kostarev and Dealla Cohen for your willingness to serve. You should all be proud of how difficult you made this decision. After reviewing all the pollings, interviewing the candidates and consulting with Their Excellencies Lochmere, Her Majesty and I have determined that Lord Cormacc au Rigain and Lady Sarra de Vicenza shall be the next Baron and Baroness of Lochmere.

Congratulations, Cormacc and Sarra; I know that you will have great support and great success in your new roles.

Now, Lochmere, prepare to celebrate the storied tenure of Gabrelle and Avice and welcome your new Baron and Baroness at Battle on the Bay. I look forward to seeing you there.

Cuan Rex

We are honored and humbled to be chosen to be the next Baron and Baroness of Lochmere. We hope to follow in the footsteps of Baron Gabrell and Baroness Avice and all the wonderful work they have done. We know the decision of our selection was a difficult one, given the outstanding candidates Their Majesties had to choose from. We appreciate all the support we have already received and those that have reached out to us. Battle of the Bay will be a memorable event for us and look forward to sharing it with everyone!

Yours In Service

Sarra and Cormacc
