B&B Corner

To the populace of the Barony of Lochmere your Baron and Baroness send our greetings,

Battle on the Bay was a great event - and especially good because we celebrated Lochmere's 30th Birthday (a little late - but still).

Sarra and I were impressed and inspired by all of the awesome efforts of Lochmere's populace. Everything from fighting, thrown weapons, and MOL. Just as important were all of the acts of gracious and generous giving to contribute to the dream. We are continually humbled by Lochmere and its people.

We were also graced by many of the former Barons and Baronesses of Lochmere - and had a social with a performance of the Lochmere Vocal Music Guild directed by Sir Aelfred LVMG always gives a great show - and they were lucky enough to have some of the populace join in on Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina's, "O Magnum Mysterium". It was moving for me - I have to admit - because it was nice to have so many join together in song to make something so beautiful. It draws many parallels, in my opinion, on when a people - sufficiently skilled and motivated - can accomplish great things, much like our Barony.

Laydes Faire also had a wonderful performance under the direction of Mistress Arianna before evening court. It was beautiful - and she (with her group) impresses those who are lucky enough to hear them. Thank you!

We had a morning baronial court - where we had the official change over of our Baronial Seneschal. Our outgoing, Master Kryss handed over the responsibilities to Sir Aelfred. The Barony also received a very generous gift from House Corvus in the form of a giant decorative blue crab. We really appreciate their gift - Master Klaus and Master Bran - Thank you! We also had the benefit of being able to celebrate our birthday with the help and support of House Red Oak, Lady Aine is a fine practitioner of shenanigans with the help of one of our former Barons - His Excellency Gabrell. Thank you for the party hats!

In evening court we were able to give the baronial Award of Excellence to our outgoing armored champion Lord Ceawlin - and appoint our new champion - milord Marcus. Marcus didn't get a chance to receive this accolade in court though - so he and I are going to have to figure out just how he is going to get the implements of his office from me.

We also awarded Lord Olaus the Blasted Oak (well deserved) and the Sable Branch to milady Shania. We would be remiss if we didn't thank our hosts - Their Excellencies Storvik, Celric and Ilaria and the autocrat Mistress Graciela. They and their staff did so much to make sure we had a good time! Thanks to them as well! Special thanks to Lady Katla for coordinating the dayshade hospitality. The spread was amazing! Dame Margery made a beautiful cake in commemoration of our birthday Also - Duchess Simone was there to make sure Sarra and I were taken care of throughout the day. We sincerely appreciate all of your efforts.

I would be remiss if I didn't mention Lady Gwen being awarded the Coral Branch - Lord Ceawlin being awarded the Silver Osprey - and Lady Kade being made a Lady of the Court by receiving her AoA at Battle on the Bay! Vivat and congratulations to all of these wonderful Lochmeri!

All in all - Sarra and I hope you all had as much fun as we did.

Thanks again for all you do!

Cormac and Sarra

An autumn poem in praise of the Virgin Mary c 1340

Nou skrinketh rose ant lylie-

Ne is no quene so stark ne stour,
Ne no leuedy so bryht in bour
That ded ne shal by glyde.
Who-se wol fleysch lust forgon
Ant heuene blis abyde,

To hire that ber the heuene kyng,
Of merci hire bysohte:
'Ledy, preye thi sone for ous
That ous duere bohte,

My herte of dedes wes fordred,
Of synne that y haue my fleish fed
Ant folwed al my tyme,
That y not whider I shal be led
When Y lygge on dethes bed,
In ioie ore into pyne.
On o ledy myn hope is,
