CHANCELOR MINOR OFFICE

(HELP WANTED)

From Lady Christiana:

As some of you know, Mike retires from the Navy this year and will be starting a civilian job. A civilian job that looks to move us (potentially) to Alaska. This will make it a bit difficult to run Children's Activities for our group.

I need someone that enjoys working with children and willing to have a background check done by the Society.

The best explanation of the job is found on the Chancellor of Youths page at <http://youth.atlantia.sca.org/> As Chancellor of Minors you would also have the opportunity to assist with the Pages Academy <http://pagesacademy.atlantia.sca.org/pages/hornbook.htm>

On average we run Children's Activities 3-4 times a year (coinciding with our standard events). There are also opportunities to assist our neighbors with activities for their events throughout the year. Reports are quarterly and consist of activity descriptions and head counts.

I will be maintaining my warrant as an "at large" CoM and would be able to assist for as long as we remain in the area. Please contact me off list if you are interested! CCs_meow[at]yahoo.com.
