Chorworks Summer Workshop July 9-13th, 2013: PSALMS, SONNETS & SONGS -

<http://chorworks.com/concerts-workshops/> This year – our ninth annual summer workshop – traces the course of 150 years of sacred and secular music in England. From Henry VIII's break with Rome, through the English Civil War, to the Restoration of King Charles II, it includes works by Taverner, Byrd, Gibbons, Ravenscroft, Purcell and Blow. The workshop is for all levels of singers from advanced high school upwards, for choir directors, and for those who simply wish to listen and learn more about this glorious music. To represent the broad scope of this year's program, we have taken the title of William Byrd's publication of 1588: PSALMS, SONNETS and SONGS An internationally distinguished faculty leads a full schedule of seminars, rehearsals, coaching and performances. Tutors include Philip Cave (Director), Sally Dunkley, Jacqueline Horner-Kwiatek, James Kennerley and Patrick Walders. The workshop runs from 9:00am to 9:00pm each day from Tuesday 9th through Saturday 13th July 2013 at George Washington University Foggy Bottom Campus, Washington, DC. (An optional extra day of musical orientation [aka: note-learning!] is available on Monday 8th July.)

Martial Activities: House Turniva, in conjunction with the Barony of Stierbach, proudly presents

The First EVER House Turniva Pentathlon Challenge on June 22, 2013 during the Stierbach Baronial Birthday.

In order to participate in the Turniva Pentathlon Challenge, individuals must compete in five categories: Armored Combat, Rapier Combat, Target Archery, Thrown Weapons, and Arts and Science.

Each of the five events will have a weighted score and will count equally toward the overall challenge.

The Challenge shall be run in the following manner:

1. A&S phase: Drop off your A&S entry at the display table after checking in and setting up. Be sure to let Lady Amie Sparrow, the A&S coordinator, know that your entry is for the Pentathlon. The Muse for this Challenge is Atlantian symbols in the medium of your choice. Be it elements for heraldry, awards or anything that makes you think Atlantia. Some level of documentation is required for the process and medium.
2. Combat Phase: The Rapier and Armored Combat fields will be run in a progressive bear pit in 2 blocks of 45 minutes. Each participant will have the opportunity to compete in both as there will be a 15 minute break in between each 45 minute block. E.G. Joe fighter starts in the AC list and fights for the first 45 minutes. During the break, Joe then switches to his R kit and then fights in the second 45 minute block on the R list.
3. Missile Phase: Upon completion of Phase 2, the pentathlon entrants will make their way to the TA and TW ranges. There will be a specific course of fire for each range. Details the day of the event. Time limit to completing Phase 3 is close of range.

At the conclusion, all of the points will be tallied and the entrant with the overall highest score will be announced as the winner of the First EVER House Turniva Pentathlon.

The winner will receive a $100.00 Gift Certificate to the SCA merchant of his/her choice.

The Pentathlon is being held in conjunction with the days activities and you do not have to enter the Pentathlon to enjoy the day. So come fight, shoot, throw and create.

T'was Summer

By

Walther von der Vogelweide

'Twas summer,-- through the opening grass
The joyous flowers upsprang,
The birds in all their different tribes
Loud in the woodlands sang:
Then forth I went, and wandered far
The wide green meadow o'er;
Where cool and clear the fountain play'd,
There strayed I in that hour.

Roaming on, the nightingale
Sang sweetly in my ear;
And, by the greenwood's shady side,
A dream came to me there;
Fast by the fountain, where bright flowers
Of sparkling hue we see,
Close sheltered from the summer heat,
That vision came to me.

All care was banished, and repose
Came o'er my wearied breast;
And kingdoms seemed to wait on me,
For I was with the blest.

Yet, while it seemed as if away
My spirit soared on high,
And in the boundless joys of heaven
Was wrapt in ecstasy,
E'en then, my body revelled still
In earth's festivity;
And surely never was a dream
So sweet as this to me.

Thus I dream'd on, and might have dwelt
Still on that rapturous dream,
When, hark! a raven's luckless note
(Sooth, 'twas a direful scream.)
Broke up the vision of delight,
Instant my joy was past:
O, had a stone but met my hand,
That hour had been his last....

<http://www.poemhunter.com/walther-von-der-vogelweide/>

Vogelweide, a poet and minnesinger (a singer of love songs), is one of the most celebrated of the Medieval German poets, the main sources of information about him are his own poems and occasional references by contemporary Minnesingers. It is clear from the title (Herr, Sir) given in these references, that he was of noble birth; but it is equally clear from his name Vogelweide (meaning: a gathering place or preserve of birds) that he belonged not to the higher nobility, who took their titles from castles or villages, but to the nobility of service.
