Letter of Intent : Lord Alric the Mad & Lady Cellach Mor

Unto the Dred and Mighty Sovereigns of the Peerless Kingdom of Atlantia do we, Alric the Mad and Cellach Mor, Sworn Vassals to the Crown which grace your heads, send greeting.

Long have we prospered under the Protection of you and your Ancestors, and long have we been blessed by laboring for your Barons and Baronesses under the banner of Great Lochmere, but we know that time is short for our beloved leaders. To that end, we have sought diverse council from These great men and women, and have also heard council from many of your Kingdom's peers and Royal Predecessors, even the great Count Sinclair Hawkins, Countess Kari Kyst, and Maitresse Belphoebe de Givet. They have informed us that our past service and current holdings make us well suited to hold the Lands of Lochmere in fief to your Crown.

And though courtesy warrants that we levy our pride with humility, We would boldly have you know, Great Sovereigns, that, should you have us swear this oath and take up this mantle, we would raise up your Baronage to such heights that the banners of Lochmere will be ever in the van, with a host of well accoutered Men at arms, and golden treasures will flow from our Artisans, for well do we know the value of these, your people, and we are determined in our hearts to inspire them to savage and beautiful Greatness.

Our journeys have been diverse, which make us suited to these tasks, Beginning a as a humble man of Leech Craft in 1993, Alric has risen through the ranks of Rapier and Rattan fighters, and has served two Kingdoms in these things. He has remained ever committed to these pursuits, and has served faithfully as marshal in both your armies. He has been awarded many honors, and serves your Order of the Golden Dolphin. Also, he has served you in marshalling events, and has had the Very great honor of serving your ancestors as a Captain of the Queen's guard, and has the Queen's Rapier Champion.

Callach too has served your Kingdom as a member of the Order of the Golden Dolphin, and has run many tournament lists in your Barony. She has also borne Harness upon stricken fields as Archer, and Siege crew for your Rattan Armies. She is well versed in many arts, including archery, and has also served as Autocrat for your Baronial Events.

We have traveled much, and know and love every corner of Your Fair Kingdom. We have also traveled to other Kingdoms, even unto the very edge of Christendom, and have campaigned and labored ever in the Service of Chivalry and the Atlantian Crown. We are blessed with the love of Many Mighty Kings and peerless Men and Women.

And though we have seen many splendors, they pale in comparison to what our hearts tell us can be accomplished in this, Your Very Great Barony of Lochmere. We know the strength of these people, and would build a Very Great levy of Men at Arms, Archers, and Rapier men so that the Glory of your Lands, and the Strength of your Crown may be heard and seen in the eyes of every Kingdom of this World, and that your fellow Sovereigns will think twice when they send forth their armies against the Banners of Lochmere. We would have them know that the greatest Nobility resides in these, Your Lands, and we would build such forces from these, your people, that the Greatness of your Throne is beyond contestation!

We would clothe them richly, and inspire our artisans to create works of splendor.

And, as we have said before, though our well groomed courtesy dictates a modicum of humility, We would have you know that we would lead your Very Great Barony with lustful pride and defiance, for such beautiful and war-like creatures as are bred in these lands would not be led by less. We would see your Barony in Greatness and Splendor, at the vanguard of your Great Persons, and your Royal Children for generations to come, and we will not rest until such Deeds are done, and the glory of Your Lands are known and respected by the greatest Captains in this World.

These things we will do, and more, should you deem us worthy to serve your throne in these capacities. Upon these words to we set our seal, and our hearts,

Ever Servants to your Throne, Lord Alric the Mad and Lady Cellach Mor

Letter of Intent : Master Phillip of Ghent & Lady Genevieve Dompier du Marche

Unto the King and Queen of Atlantia, Their Highnesses the Prince and Princess, the Baron and Baroness of Lochmere, and the populace of the Barony of Lochmere, do we Master Phillip of Ghent and Lady Genevieve Dompier du Marche send greetings and salutations. With this letter we hereby announce our interest and desire to become Baron and Baroness of our esteemed Barony of Lochmere.

Our many collective years of being in the Society of Creative Anachronism give us an understanding of the level of commitment, dedication, and enthusiasm required to hold such important and honored positions. As Baron and Baroness we will lead by example, and be leaders with a vision. We will listen to the concerns and ideas offered by the populace so that we may determine how to best steer Lochmere forward. We are ready to perform whatever tasks necessary to guide the Barony in being a flourishing and desirable place to play and grow.

Our objectives for the Barony are through encouragement for the continual growth of the various Martial Arts and the Arts and Sciences community. We seek to recognize and reward those who serve the Barony and the Kingdom. We endeavor to support the populace by increasing opportunities for teaching and learning activities across the Barony.

Lady Genevieve discovered the SCA in 1992 and became a member of the Middle Kingdom; she is a founding member of the Barony of Cynnabar. It was there she achieved an Award of Arms and served as a Chirurgeon in Training. After relocating to the Kingdom of Atlantia in 2011, she has committed to serving her Barony and Kingdom on a deeper level. Singing with the Lochmere Vocal Music Guild and Laydes Fayre (an inter-baronial chorale group), she continues to support and serve the Barony of Lochmere as Baronial Chirurgeon, and has recently autocratted the Lochmere Silk Road Midwinter Revel. By filling in the gaps wherever needed, she has served the barony in many other capacities such as lunch preparation for events, organizing Lochmart (a used goods sale in which profits benefit the barony), assisting troll and kitchen staff, and event set up/clean up. For these efforts she has been recognized with Lochmere's service award, the Blasted Oak.

Master Phillip joined the Society in Marinus in 1979. Throughout his career in the Society, he has resided in Tir-Y-Don, Caer Mear, Storvik, and is one of the founding members of Dun Carraig. Phillip has served at various times as a herald, chronicler, web minister, and seneschal in these groups. At the Kingdom level he was Clerk of Precedence, researcher on the Triton Herald's staff, and a past Chancellor of the University of Atlantia. He has been recognized with service awards from Caer Mear and Dun Carraig, and has been inducted into the Orders of the Golden Dolphin, the Pearl, and the Pelican. Most recently he served three (3) terms as Baron of Dun Carraig. Lately, Master Phillip can be found working in the kitchens at Lochmere events.

We have seen that too often longstanding members of a group tend to gravitate toward others who engage in similar areas of interest. As such, they have limited interaction with groups of different interests. We would like to encourage interplay between these existing groups to assist members in getting to know each other better, thereby fostering friendship and stronger working relationships. We feel we can achieve this by promoting fun and casual activities both inside and outside of formal SCA functions in different geographic regions of the Barony.

One of our primary strategies as Baron and Baroness is to increase the visibility and encourage membership of the Barony by supporting quality demos conducted by the Barony. Performing demos in high profile areas will allow the group to attract a broader spectrum of potential members. New members are the lifeblood of any group. They bring in a high level of enthusiasm and new ideas, while helping invigorate the spirit of existing members. New members can help lighten the work load at future events by learning and taking on tasks traditionally preformed by the same handful of volunteers.

We see one of our major responsibilities as Baron and Baroness to present a strong image of Lochmere to the rest of the Kingdom. We, the Baronial regalia, and our Champions will be present at Kingdom and regional events to cultivate closer relationships with the Crown, our Cousin Baronies, and the members of these groups. To extend this to martial activities, we will provide fighting tabards and baldrics bearing the Lochmere badge to all warriors, fencers and archers taking the field in the Barony's name.

Many talented artists live within the boundaries of Lochmere: leather and wood workers, costumers, cooks, brewers and vocalists, just to name a few. The works of the populace not only lend to the beauty of the Barony, but to the Kingdom as well and should be justly recognized. Lady Genevieve and Master Phillip will continue to strongly support Lochmere's artisans, as Genevieve has a love of the arts as exemplified by her skills in glasswork. By increasing the number of opportunities for Arts & Science functions within the Barony, they hope to encourage others to participate – not only in the creation of beautiful items, but in displaying their fine work and talents across the Kingdom.

We look forward to the challenge of leading the Barony of Lochmere in the event we are chosen as its Baron and Baroness. The work will be hard and the hours long, but in the end the results will prove the effort worthwhile. As Baron and Baroness, we will lead the populace with our hearts, we will provide just and sound counsel with our minds, and we will speak of all the good deeds done by the people of Lochmere to Their Majesties.

By our hand on this 20th day of May A.S. XLVIII

Letter of Intent : Lord Griffin Warwick & Lady Cassair Warwick

Greetings, Mistress Arianna Morgan

We wish to state our intent as candidates for Baron and Baroness of Lochmere. We have resided in the barony for 14 years and Lochmere is our home. We feel we are ready to serve and give back to this wonderful barony.

Griffin has been involved in the SCA for 31 years, including time spent restoring the now Barony of Red Spears in the Midrealm to an active group. He has also served Lochmere as Baronial Heavy champion several times.

Cassair has been involved with SCA for 14 year. She has helped with children activities. And served as Chatelain and currently serves as deputy chatelain. And she has served the monarchs as retainer.

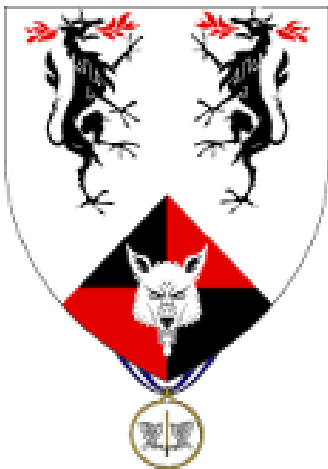

We would like to see the barony continue to grow in all aspects including fighting and the arts. We will work with the baronial officers and populace to ensure the barony is a welcoming place for all.

We will always do our best to represent the barony at baronial and kingdom events. We will provide sound advice to the crowns and their kingdom representatives.

Yours in Service,

Griffin Warwick

Letter of Intent : Lord Gabrell Fairclaugh & Lady Avice Claremond

April 20, 2014

Greetings unto Your Royal Majesties of Atlantia and the fair populous of the Barony of Lochmere from your loyal subjects, Lord Gabrell Fairclaugh and Lady Avice Claremond,

As the Barony of Lochmere begins the process of considering new individuals to step into the prestigious role of Baron and Baroness, we, Gabrell and Avice, have spent a great deal time seriously considering the responsibilities and needs of the Barony. We have discussed this between ourselves and those close to us. We believe that we will meet the needs of the Barony and the Kingdom by being the next Baron and Baroness of Lochmere and have the support of our friends and family.

We understand that the role of Baron and Baroness is to represent the crown to the members of the Barony while also facilitating the success of the members of the Barony. Lochmere is known for its beautiful events, sumptuous feasts, talented arts and sciences community, strong martial and archery communities, and long standing tradition of service to the Kingdom. We are committed to keep these areas strong while striving to improve areas where we need work.

The integration and retention of newcomers to the Barony is of particular interest to us. It is our observation that it takes more than one event or one contact to make a newcomer feel welcome. We will utilize the strengths of the Barony to continue to find ways to make our newer members feel welcome and become important and long time members of our group.

In addition to retaining newcomers, we recognize the importance of the recognition and retention of our current members, many of whom have served the Barony for a decade or more. Their continued interest keeps the Barony healthy, growing, and a happy place to belong. Among other ideas, we will foster and support opportunities for creative events, have armor classes taught at the Baronial newcomer/A&S/Fighter practice nights (also known as Combo Night), provide additional ways to recognize the contributions of members of the Barony, and seek University credit for classes taught at Lochmere events.

We plan on reaching out to the different households and interest groups within our Barony as well as to our neighbors so we can continue to grow in our understanding of everyone's interests. The demographics of our population change over time but it is important to keep our beloved traditions alive while looking for ways to continue to evolve and improve.

We have both served the Barony in various capacities such as Baronial officers and deputies, autocrat, and event staff while also traveling to events outside our Barony, often providing service at kingdom level events, the events of other Baronies, and at Pennsic. Both of us have served as MoLs and participate in A&S competitions and displays and teach when we can. In addition we teach and train barony members in new skills and tasks.

We humbly request that you accept this letter of intent for us to serve the Barony of Lochmere as the next Baron and Baroness. We welcome any questions or discussion.

Knights Marshal, Lord Alric the Mad –

Waivers for 1st quarter 2014 have been sent to the Wavier secretary.

Gym request for the fall semester have been submitted

We continue to have the occasional new fighter. I expect another this week.

Practices have been held outside the last few weeks as weather permitted.

We have the gym for 3 more weeks, then outside only for practice.

In one or two weeks, we are going to start rotating rapier and armored melee practice so those who are wish to fight on both fields, can.

In other news, the Lochmere Baronial rapier melee team prevailed at Ruby Joust over several very good teams with an assist from two fighters from Black Diamond. We have in our possession a fine banner to display and defend next year.

Archery Marshal, Dame Dealla –

- weather has not been our friend lately

- attendance has also been down a bit from recent years

(And way down from our hey day as kingdom archery powerhouse )

We have lots of loaner gear!!!! Come on out and shoot!!!!

Master of the Lists, Lord Gabrell Fairecloughe –

Deputy was the MoLIC for Sunday at Ruby and she had good help. All from our up and coming class of MoLs in Lochmere.

Chirurgion, Lady Genevieve –

Quarterly Report submitted (6/1). Other than that... NTR

Minister of Arts & Science, Lady Erennach the Lost -

May's combo night went well: we had no new faces but LVMG did come and practice and shared music with fellow combo night goers.

Our next combo night is Tuesday June 10th. A reminder will be sent out later this week.

Thanks to Vlad (yeah Vlad!) the gym has been reserved for A&S/Newcomer nights for the fall/early winter:

Tuesday, October 14, 2014, 6:30 PM - 9:00 PM

Tuesday, November 11, 2014, 6:30 PM - 9:00 PM

Tuesday, December 09, 2014, 6:30 pm-9:00pm

A few individuals have expressed some interest in putting together a sewing workshop in order to prepare for Pennsic. If you would like to attend a workshop-PLEASE email me by Friday June 13th to let me know (telling me in person is okay too, but it's easier to keep track of a count of interested folks if I have emails). If I can't get enough people who are interested, I will not plan a workshop.
