To the Populace of Lochmere

From: Baron Galmr & Baroness Eydis

Greetings from Galmr & Eydis, Baron and Baroness of the Great Barony of Lochmere. As you read this our time as your Baron and Baroness is coming to an end. It has been a wonderful experience representing this great Barony to the Kingdom and the Known World for the past 4 years. Now we happily pass this privilege on to our successors. At this time, TRM have not yet revealed who they will be, however, we are full of confidence that any of the couples who stepped forward could fill the role admirably.

We'd like to thank all the officers, autocrats, and volunteers over the last 4 years that did much of the actual work so we could host, hold court, and attend to the ceremonial needs of the Barony. It was our great pleasure, and one of the best parts of the job, to bestow awards to the deserving populace. In most cases you would have done those tasks anyway but official recognition makes the effort more worthwhile and visible.

After all, the awards themselves are but paper; it's the esteem of our friends that makes them real.

We'd also like to thank past and current members of our "Baronial Household": the champions whose excellence well represented Lochmere in various arts: martial, artistic, and otherwise. Plus those of personal service to ourselves who helped make things go: Lady Avice especially, but also a long list of others that includes our sons Marcus & Joseph, Lady Saige and especially Mistress Arianna and Master Reynard.

Their queen, Prospera, directs her daughter's coming-of-age ceremony in a rite that honors femininity, renewal, rebirth and balance which marks the passing of these insights and values from one generation to the next.

In the wake of a storm caused by Prospera, a group of young men lands on the island, triggering an epic, emotional story of love between Prospera's daughter and a brave young suitor. But theirs is a love that will be put to the test. The couple must face numerous demanding trials and overcome daunting setbacks before they can achieve mutual trust, faith and harmony."

BATTLE ON THE BAY & LOCHMERE INVESTITURE OF LORD GABRELL & LADY AVICE

September 12-14

http://acorn.atlantia.sca.org/event_flyer.php?event_id=clc6fd8a

The drekkars have come to shore once more, bringing home good gold rings for our thegns to bestow on the war-bands. But there is yet time for one more raid, before winter's sharp knives cut waves deep on the surface of the sea and the ships must come to shore until spring. Join Storvik, the mother of baronies her boon allies from Lochmere, for a weekend of camaraderie, boasting, and battles. Help us welcome our dread Sovereigns to our shores, so that They may place new thegns upon the high seat of Lochmere. Let all mark this glorious occasion with deeds of courage, the display of great treasures, and all the hall joys we may conjure!

Martial Activities: Battle on the Bay is a great melee event. Viking-themed melee scenarios will be run throughout the day. More information will be forthcoming

Arts & Sciences Activities: Join us Friday night for a Viking Boasting! We will pass the horn of mead and dare to speak our boasts of what we pledge to do - on the battle-field or in the hall. Beware the sharp tongue of the thyle, who may call your claims into question! Be not cowed, but speak boldly back, proving your strength and sincerity. For more information contact Teleri the Prepared at sca_bard@yahoo.com

Saturday activities include Viking themed challenges and open display:

Winner Take All - Viking Plunder: For this category, bring your bravery and an entry you are willing to lose – because the winner will take home all entries for their prize! Bring something small or bring your best to compete. Documentation will improve your score.

Viking Raids - The Vikings touched cultures from Russia to the Mediterranean to the New World. Compete in this category with a Viking themed entry or an entry from any culture influenced by the Vikings. Documentation is always encouraged.

FALL CORONATION OF PRINCE MICHAEL & PRINCESS SEONAIID

October 3 - 5

http://acorn.atlantia.sca.org/event_flyer.php?event_id=440d5706

Pennsic is over. The summer is ending. It's time to celebrate the coming Season of Change.

Consider the time period: late 14th Century – early 15th Century. With the approach of St. Crispin's Day we remember Agincourt, the great victory of England's Henry V, and those planning battles hereafter must change their tactics when facing such mighty bowmen.

As Henry's brother, John of Lancaster, comes to France, he brings with him English musicians led by John Dunstaple, who offer the sweet new chords and harmonies – the English Consonance -- changing forever the tunes produced by the entranced French and Burgundian composers.

Fashions too are changing, as tight-laced cotehardies give way to sumptuous houpplandes and on their heads ladies are trading their wimples and barbettes for padded rolls and henins.

In Atlantia, golden leaves now join the green on the forest-cloaked northern hills, inspiring those decking feast halls to decorate the kingdom's arms of Argent and Azure with Or and Vert. How appropriate then that the colors for the day are blue and white, green and gold.

And Michael of Bedford, our Warrior Prince, will lead his lovely Princess Seonaid to the throne to rule as the King and Queen of the Harvest and a season of peace. For we cap this season of change with a change of monarchs. Come to Bright Hills for Fall Coronation.

Heralds and bards are tuning their voices, and musicians are tuning their instruments.

Martial Activities: Come display your prowess in the martial arts. His Royal Highness would see the kingdom's fighting men compete with greatsword and in a Bedford Points Tournament, while Her Royal Highness wishes displays of skill with rapier. Archers are requested to prove their marksmanship and Men and Women of the Horse to demonstrate their control of their steeds.

Arts & Sciences Activities: Come show the wealth of the kingdom: the skills of its artisans and scientists. The theme for the arts and sciences shall be Atlantia. There will also be a Tempora Atlantia competition with the time period of 1250 – 1400

Site: Camp Spencer, Broad Creek Memorial Scout Reservation 1739 Peach Orchard Road Street, MD 21154. Site opens Friday 5pm, closes Sunday noon.

Reservations: Lord Cairell mac Cormaic (Carl Jacobson), 7927 Mandan Road, Apt. 104, Greenbelt, MD 20770, Phone: (443) 416-8356, E-mail: cairellmaccormaic@yahoo.com
