Unto the Populace of Lochmere

Greetings Unto the Delightful Citizens of the Barony of Lochmere,

We'd like to take this time to share our most recent travels and share our plans for Pennsic.

First, we traveled to the Barony of Black Diamond who hosted the 90th Atlantia University. As many of you know, the University Chancellor is our own Lady Lisette la Roux who pulled together another amazing University. She is assisted by Mistress Genevieve who manages all the registrations. We would like to thank them for their service to the Kingdom. The class schedule was robust and the site was excellent. Her Excellency taught a class on Suminigashi while His Excellency helped handing out schedules. Convocation brought additional good news: Countess Aryanna and Her Excellency received their University Fellowships (a teaching certificate). Then Her Majesty held a brief but exciting court just before lunch. First, Lady Scholastic received her Coral Branch, and as the last order of business, Lady Ragnveig received her writ for her Laurel. There was much rejoicing after the court for the awards that were handed out. Then it was back to classes, then helping clean up before we moved on to the next stop. For those interested in learning more about the University of Atlantia, the web site is <http://university.atlantia.sca.org/>.

His Excellency traveled down to Steirbach's Baronial Birthday, where it was sunny and bright. His Excellency was honored to help out at the MoL tent where he had a front seat to all the action. His Excellency watched as the fighters not only battled their opponents but also the heat. There was excellent fighting throughout the day. During court Baron Kryss was kind enough to lend out a throwing weapon to Steirbach's new champion, as Steirbach's was misplaced and His Excellency is grateful for that.

Now we turn our attention to cleaning armor, gathering weapons, sewing, and preparing for War. Pennsic will be very busy this year. We encourage everyone to share via the Lochmere list and the Facebook page the classes they are teaching, shows they are performing, battles and/or tournaments in which they are competing and any other activities in which Lochmeri are participating. We would like to attend or assist with as many of these as possible.

The Barony of Lochmere's court will be Sunday, August 2nd, at 7 pm followed by a social gathering. We hope to see you all there.

Her Excellency is coordinating food donations and general assistance (guard duty, break down/set-up) for the vigil for Lord Alessandro. Please contact her via Facebook or at baroness@lochmere.atlantia.sca.org if you can help. We will also try to get a complete schedule for all the Atlantia vigils posted to the Yahoo list and Facebook.

The Barony of Lochmere along with the Barony of Bright Hills will be sponsoring the bouncy castle at the Children's Fete at Pennsic. We ask for your assistance in manning the bouncy castle and help with other Children's activities. The Fete is scheduled for Wednesday, Aug 5th, 12-3.

To those attending Pennsic, we are looking forward to spending time with you and wish you all safe travels.

These images are from Lochmere's Baronial Book. It tells of the history of the Barony from the beginning. The book was written (in calligraphy and illuminated) by Lord Ilarion Ivanovich Drakonov, in about A.S. 22.

Over the next several issues of the Dredgings, a few pages will be added from the book. When all the pages have been published, a complete pdf will be available with all the pages of the book on the Lochmere Yahoo Groups page. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Lady Sarra de Vicenza

At this time I was the seneschal of Myrkewood.
As such, I was approached by individuals of both of the shires with the idea of the two groups forming a barony. I did like the idea, but I knew of potential sources of problems and that there would be opposition to the idea. I was pleased to hear of the idea, for many in the two shires had been trying to improve relationships with the other groups in the region. This was taken as a good sign.

Through the summer and on into the fall, the idea of the two groups forming a barony spread and gained in favor.

Prominent members of the shires were approached on the idea. As news of the idea spread, so did concern among some in the shires. Both of the shires had been trying to grow, but were having some difficulty due to the groups being so close in this region. Friction between the groups was inevitable. Several members of the shires had been working to reduce this friction.

These ideas of forming a barony were without direction or leadership. Then, in the winter of A.S. XVII, Lady Keilyn Far Traveller learned of this undercurrent and determined to do something. She contacted the seneschal of Arindale, Lady Warrenna of Rathlin, and myself, the seneschal of Myrkwood, to get permission to organize things to determine if the barony was feasible and something that the people wanted. We both agreed to allow her to go ahead.

At the business for the two groups in January, the proposal for a barony was formally brought up. Although some were opposed, and

Chronicler's Challenge

Thank you for taking the time to read the Dredgings!
This month's challenge...

Who can recommend someone for an SCA award?

Be the first to email me the answer and I will reward you! (sarradevicenza@outlook.com)

From last month....

Give me a brief description of how our Kingdom Newsletter got its name and how Lochmere is part of that history.

Taken from: <http://historian.atlantia.sca.org/about/the-acorn-kingdom-newsletter/>

The Barony of Myrkwood was chartered by the Kingdom of the East at Twelfth Night, January 9, 1971. The device had a tree (blasted oak) and no laurel wreath, predating that requirement. Vuong Manh put out an unofficial newsletter for SCA, Markland, and kindred folk in the barony named the Acorn, taking its name from the tree imagery. It continued to be the de facto newsletter for the mid-Atlantic area as it became a region of the East, then a principality and a kingdom. At that point it became an official SCA publication. That is why it does not share a nautical theme with the rest of the kingdom's awards and titles.

Good luck and keep reading....I will have more Baronial, Kingdom and SCA trivia in 2015!
