Words from Their Excellencies

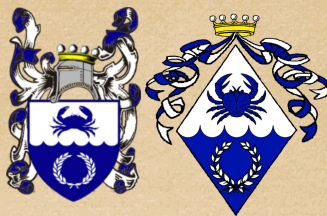

Greetings, Lochmere,

As this is being written, many of the Barony have headed north to secure our lands for Pennsic. We are only attending war week this year, but we know that a lot of work happens ahead of time. Special thanks must go to Master Reynard for maintaining the camp infrastructure and organizing the camp. Additional thanks go to Dame Dealla, Master Kryss, Sir Joselin, Sir William Shopp Ratt, Baron Aelfgar, and Lord Amleth for helping with the truck during the original packing.

For those who have not heard, the journey to war was quite the adventure, featuring multiple flat tires. Master Kryss receives a special shoutout for all the adventures, as does Dame Dealla, who spent two days loading and unloading the truck with Master Kryss. An emergency call went out, and Lady Kara and Jeff from our Barony, as well as Karen and Sir Kjartan from Highland Foorde, came to help. Everything was moved from one truck to the next in record time.

I am sure that We will hear of more tales of heroics during setup. We will hold Our court Tuesday at 7. We hope to see many crabulous folks there. We also will be attending Their Majesties' great court on Wednesday.

- Baron Linhart and Baroness Letia
