

THE DREDGINGS

THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF ATLANTIA'S BARONY OF LOCHMERE

VOLUME 37 ~ ISSUES 9 ~ SEPT 2026 ~ AS LXI

Learning the art of the sword is an experience that takes one's entirety. One must learn and train with their heart,
body, mind and self.

Training muscles and reflexes to beat your opponent is an obvious
step requiring dedication, determination and heart.

Training the mind is a less obvious component - knowing your own brain's, reflexes, and concerns while having the wisdom to predict your opponent's is required.

Words from Their Excellencies

The Baronage of Lochmere

BARON Melchior zum Grauen Wolf & BARONESS Kade Tatter Skirt

GREETINGS LOCHMERE,

It seems like Pennsic was only yesterday, but fall will be here soon, and a whole new slate of events with it. In particular, we find ourselves looking to preparations for Battle on the Bay on the weekend of Oct 24th. This is a signature event for Lochmere and our friends in Strovik. This year is also a Royal Progress, so we want to cross our i's and dot our t's to put our collective best foot forward. Let's support our Event Steward, Dame Emma, to the best of our ability to help ensure that a good weekend is had by all.

Thank you to Arianna for organizing another lovely A&S day, to Astrid for teaching a fantastic tablet weaving class, and to everyone who is coming out to support these activities. Workshops like this are great to bring people together and grow the bonds of community. Thank you to everyone for participating.

With crabtastic appreciation in our hearts, hope that those of you who attended Pennsic had a lovely time, have returned home safely, and are not being eaten by your post-war laundry.
